

Youth Leading on Issues that Matter to Them: climate, poverty and affordability

With Haleema Ahmed, Sydney Campbell, Manvir
Bhangu, and Fadumo Diriye

Today's Speakers

Haleema Ahmed
Student/Researcher
York University

Manvir Bhangu
Director
Laadliyan

Sydney Campbell
Student/Researcher
University of Toronto

Fadumo Diriye
Senior Data Analyst
Youthful Cities

The Real Affordability Index

Explore the data of the index to understand why Canadian cities aren't affordable to young people. Let's discuss how to combat this national problem.

15-29 year-old Canadians

27

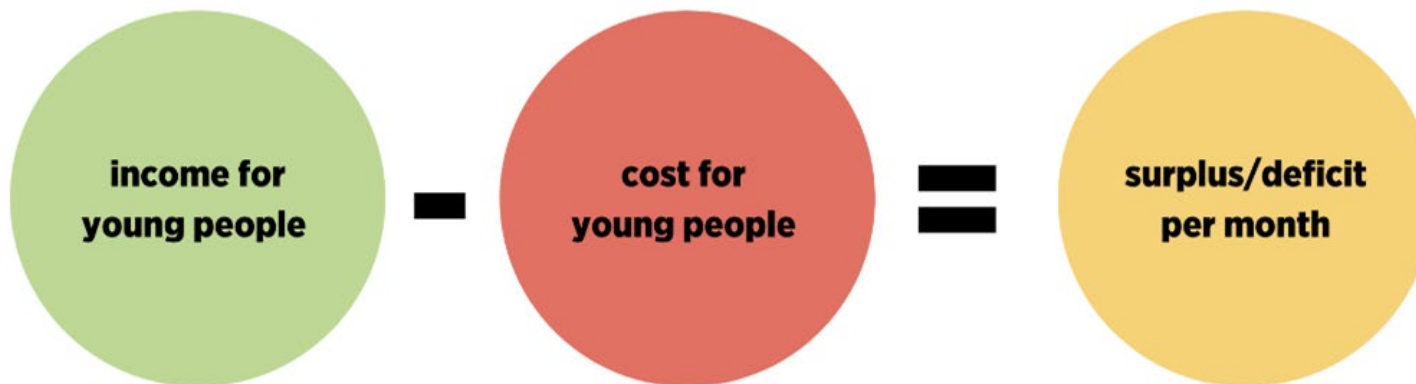

CITIES

54

MEASUREMENTS

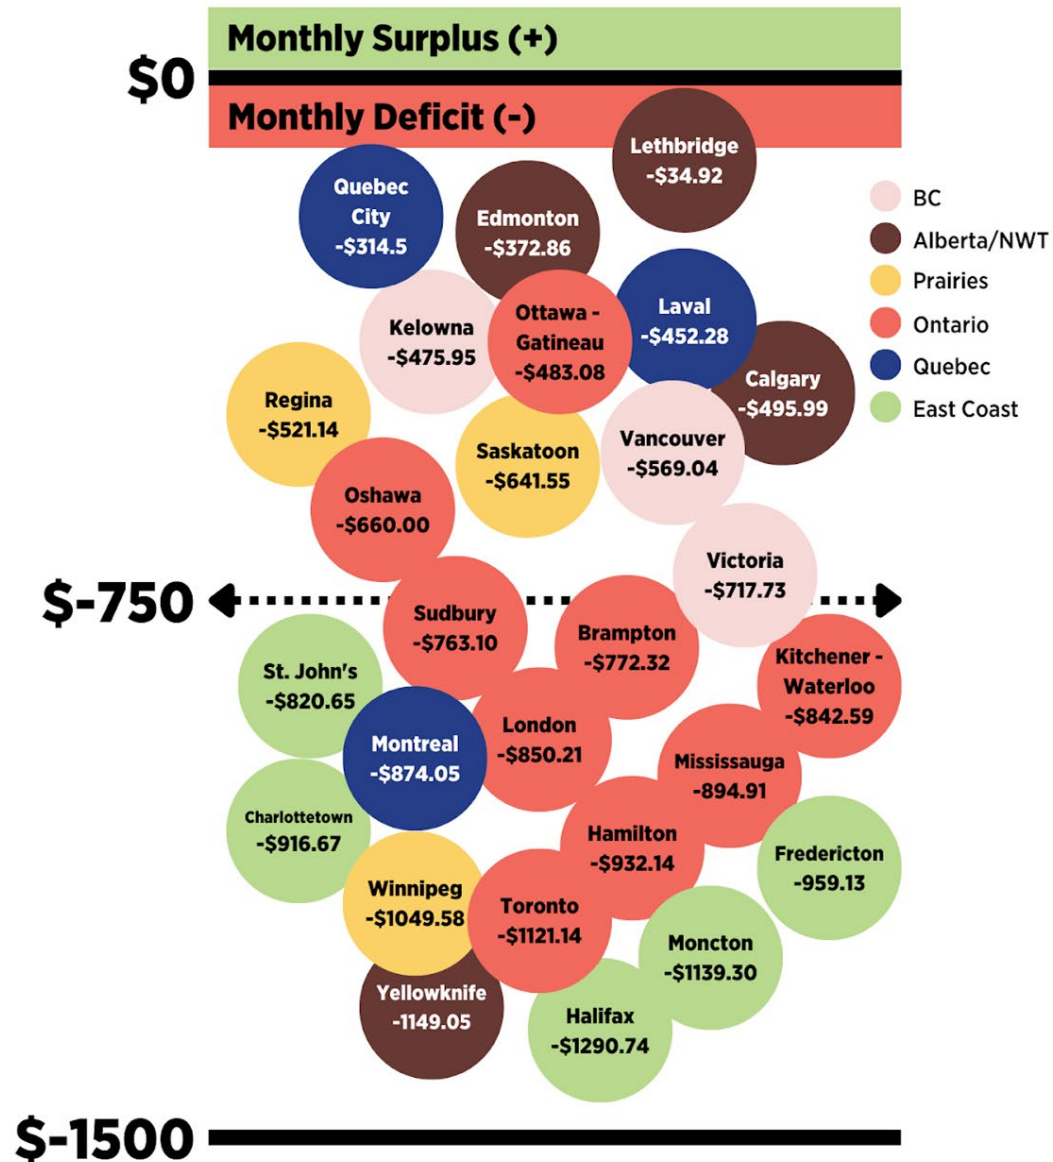

2414

DATA POINTS

27 Canadian Cities*

Monthly Income Minus Monthly Costs by City for 15-29 year-old Canadians

"Young people in Canada run an average deficit of $750 a month living in cities.

To break even young people would need to isolate themselves – meaning no entertainment, no transportation, and no dining out.

Is this the position we want young people to be in?"

Questions?

2022 Communities Ending Poverty Member Gathering

Register or learn about membership:
natasha@tamarackcommunity.ca

October 19, 2022 | 11:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. ET (8:00 a.m.–1:30 p.m. PT)

This virtual event will bring Communities Ending Poverty members together to reconnect with each other, celebrate successes, and share aspirations.

We will brainstorm the many ways that Tamarack and member communities can work together to shift policy and systems and build equity and resilience as we work collaboratively toward the End of Poverty in Canada.

Upcoming Webinar

Sacred Civics: Building Seven Generations Cities

Date: Wednesday, August 3, 2022 | 12:00 p.m.–1:00 p.m. ET

Join us for a conversation on the intersections of social and climate justice, inclusivity, participatory design, healthy communities and future cities.

Webinar: Sacred Civics: Building Seven Generation Cities \(tamarackcommunity.ca\)

Thank you!

Please send your questions, comments and feedback to natasha@tamarackcommunity.ca